Dear Friends,

Getting away from it all, recuperating, recovering: are holidays only about having a few moments escaping to a paradise, before returning to a hectic schedule of everyday life?

Away from our normal routine, we might meet new people, see different places, and experience different ways of doing things. Are holidays as much about learning something new and bringing these experiences back into our everyday life, our homes, our neighbourhoods?

Rather than an escape, could we see holidays as times to recharge our hearts and minds, so we can look for new ways of helping our own places to work better, in a more kindly and inclusive way? We can see our own familiar places with new eyes. The prophets of old said that God is 'doing a new thing'. The call of faith is a call to live in hope.

In Christ,
Stephen.

Repairs successfully completed, the glorious celebration window is restored. Some of the coloured panes had been damaged, rust compromised parts of the frame. Within a week the scaffolding was erected, used and removed. To maintain this treasure in its full glory has proved complicated and expensive. It is worth a visit to explore the subtleties only visible on close inspection. You are very welcome to come and see any Tuesday in term time, Saturday or Sunday morning. Would you wish to consider contributing to the repair? Bring some friends to enjoy up close this glorious inspiring work of art.

How does your 'church on the High Street' serve our community and our Lord Jesus? To be open to our neighbours, to offer a safe place where community and love of our neighbour can thrive, we need your help please. Perhaps you might like to get to know more local people or try a new activity? Our church works thanks to the help of volunteers who give a few hours on a weekly or monthly basis. Our worship is informal, varied, reflective and encouraging with time to build relationships. As the people of this small church look to the future we are in need of neighbours with a little time to give. Could this suit you, even a friend or two? Please come in and ask or drop a note to info@hamptonhillurc.org.uk. Thank you.

What is this church - the URC? Here in Hampton Hill for over 180 years, this 'Chapel' began as a response to the needs of children for a Sunday School. Today we try to share the love of Jesus Christ for his/our neighbours. In 1972 the the Congregational church 'united' with the Presbyterian church; both see the Bible as our guide, worshipping simply, being open to everyone. Our worship includes enjoyment, prayers, encouragement and forgiveness. We read and learn about Jesus; seeking how we might share His kindness. We work closely with all the other Hampton churches. Please do come and see for yourself.
